

STAYING WITH THE TROUBLE IN PAINTING

Exposition du 25/08 au 5/11
 Building Canebière 73-75
 24H/24

*"Staying with the trouble requires oddkin; that is, we require each other in unexpected collaborations and combinations, in hot compost piles."
 Donna Haraway*

Staying with the trouble in Painting (swttip) is a performative installation which is acted out on a 3 meter high and 26 meter long wall, in Passage Canebière - 73-75 la Canebière, 13001 Marseille - from the 25th of August to the 5th of November 2020. Around sixty artists from various generations and nationalities have been invited to propose a black and white poster linked to their practice. Posters appear on the wall in the order of their reception, in the position determined by each artist's chosen coordinates. As time passes, the posters superimpose or cover one another completely, their blending is the collective work. Forms appear, meet and disappear randomly, questioning in an experimental way the concept of Author and the sustainability of an artwork.

Staying with the Trouble in Painting is organised by Arnaud Arini, Guillaume Durrieu, Alice Griveau, Nadia Lichtig, Katharina Schmidt and Hazel Ann Watling.
